Dear David:

Thanks for remembering me, even if it took that cartoon to remind you! Yes, I recall that meeting in Waco with you and Dick. It's a good thing we can laugh at days such as you mentioned in your letter-otherwise we would never be able to face the tomorrows.

I am glad to know where you and your wife are living and working. I wish you every success there and pray God will use both of you mightily in His cause.

Enclosed you will find the copy of my presentation on Martin Luther King.

Your brother,

John Allen Chalk

Dear John Allen -

When I saw the cartoon I am enclosing, you were the first one I thought of. I believe it was in 1967 when you held a meeting at Columbus Ave. in Waco. I was working as the associate with Dike Daughtry.

During the course of that week, Max Neel called from Gatesville inviting you to speak at the Maximum Security State School. Daughtry accepted for you "cold turkey." Anyway, I still remember the great job you did and the whole visit was a singular experience for me. Oh, the cartoon.

My wife and I were very pleased that you remained at Highland. We are beginning our third year at this work.

Yours in preaching -
David Rix

P.S. Could I have a copy of your paper on Martin Luther King?
