Dear Darrell:

I would like nothing better than to meet with your Oakland University group while at the North Warren Congregation in November. Frankly, my time will be very tightly scheduled during the visit to the Detroit area. I will not be able to come very much in advance of the time for my first talks with the North Warren congregation. I would urge you to get in touch with Paul Killom and arrange time when I can meet with your group at the North Warren building during the few hours that I will be with them. I will be very happy to meet with you and will be prepared to make a special presentation to you should you desire it. After you have talked with Paul and made some arrangement about the amount of time that I can have with you.

I am pleased at the plans being made for this fall and will join you in constant prayer about them. I appreciate so much the concern and commitment all of you are showing. Check with brother Killom and then let me know what you decide.

Your brother,

John Allen Chalk

Dear Brother Chalk,

We as students of Oakland University in Rochester, Michigan and as members of the church, have in the making a program of evangelism for our campus that should start this fall. Plans have been made for a retreat on the first weekend in September to orient those new workers for Christ and revive the old. The truth is that we all are new workers for Christ, never really endeavoring to use the campus as a workground. Just talking with you at Michigan State that weekend not too long ago was inspiring and helped in our efforts. But we can only plan so far ahead and those plans look so sketchy when put down on paper, not that we are trying to over-organize but in effort to make definite our goals and be unanimous in our convictions.

Like everyone else, our faith sometimes falters, be it our own personal belief in ourselves as capable, intelligent people or in the power of the word of God. The news of your meeting * was encouraging, because of our previous experience in meeting with you personally in April. It is good to know that you will be near enough to talk to us again in greater number by then I hope! Would it be at all possible for you to come to Oakland to meet with the group there? The North Warren congregation is about a forty minute drive from Oakland (and a pretty one!). I do not know how long you will be here but I hope that it will be long enough for us to see you. If it would be possible, even if not we could come to you enmasse, please let me know. I am writing to you now so that we will get first dibs on your spare time!

Do let me know and thank you for your consideration.

Sincerely,

Darrell Boris
