Dear Barry:

I still remember with gratitude and inspiration our visit together during your recent trip to Abilene. Hardin Simmons University campus hasn't been the same since your visit. I thank God for the insights out of His word that you were able to share with the students at Hardin Simmons from all over Abilene.

I have just finished reading The Pied Piper. It is a great way to communicate with the teenagers. I read the book on the way to a Youth Rally in Detroit and was inspired at a number of points to do a better job of communicating with the kids God allowed me to minister to last weekend. Thanks again for the contribution our personal visit made to my life and for the encouragement The Pied Piper gave me during this most recent Youth Rally.

Fraternally yours,

John Allen Chalk

John Allen,

want to thank you for our Brief, but grace filled fellowship! I'm grown to love you already - Praise The Lord for you Brother!

I am going to pray for you on a Regular Basis as you preach through Romans!

Had a great Thgt on II cor. 5:15

"and that he died for all, that they which live should not henceforth live unto themselves
but unto him who died for them + rose again."

Note: Self Surrender is the fulfilling of the purpose of the Atonement. Lordship! "To this end he both died + rose again, that he might be Lord!"

I want you to come out here soon. We'll work something out.

Stay in there!

Barry
