Dear Allen:

Thank you for such a thoughtful letter. I did appreciate so much having the opportunity to meet you again at Wolfe City. I heard many of the members there speak highly of your work. They love and appreciate you greatly.

It was a real pleasure getting to visit the Bible Chair and Student Center. It looks like Roy is doing a great job. I thoroughly enjoyed visiting with you and the students.

Thanks again for taking time out of your busy schedule to write such an encouraging letter.

Your brother,

John Allen Chalk

Dear John Albe:

Just a note to let you know we appreciate you and your good work. I know that often times brethren in your position are unjustly criticized. Therefore, I just felt that you ought to know you are also appreciated.

You made a great hit with our Bible Chair students! Thanks for your "devos" and also the five books of lessons.

In His,

Allen H. Otto
