Mr. Tommy Morris
P.O. Box 574
Cookeville, Tennessee

Dear Tommy:

How can I be as appreciative as I ought to be for your unusual willingness to go out of your way to be of assistance to me. I am confident that without your help I would never have accomplished all the things I had to accomplish during my last visit at Abilene. I have heard the industry executives talk about the ideal and dedicated professional insurance man, but I must confess you are the first one I have met. This letter cannot begin to express my true gratitude and my deep satisfaction at knowing you will be assisting me. I look forward to a long and happy association with you and your wife.

Please thank Martha for the sandwich at your house the other night. It was a real pleasure to be with you.

Fraternally yours,

John Allen Chalk
