Dear Nancy:

I was happy to have the opportunity of seeing you again during the Glendale meeting. I appreciated your taking the time to come all the way across town to be with us. I was thrilled to hear of your continuing commitment to Christ and the great meaning that He has in your life.

Enclosed is the sermon, "The Insanity of Sin", about which you talked. You also requested some material on the elder brother. Enclosed is a copy of a sermon I preached several years ago. I do not know whether it will provide you the help you will need on this subject or not. If you have further questions, feel free to write me.

Fraternally yours,

John Allen Chalk
