Dear Miss Bell:

Thank you so much for the complimentary copy of The Sentinal of Truth. It was a pleasure to read this entire article, and especially to discover so much in the articles by Brother Charles Holt with which I would completely agree. His emphasis on our need for openness to truth and his unusual candor regarding our "dogmas and rituals" is especially refreshing.

There has never been a time when our people needed to study God's word more and when they understood it less than today. I compliment the work being done by Sentinal of Truth.

Sincerely yours,

John Allen Chalk
