Mr. Lloyd Wilson
Gainesboro
Tennessee

Dear Brother Wilson:

I wish I knew how many times I had remembered our conversation of last year and planned to call you about coming to preach for the congregation there. Unfortunately, my Saturdays filled up, and I just never seemed to find the time to do it. Please forgive my tardiness in answering your very kind invitation.

Brother Joe Law and I have talked about this several times and made repeated plans for coming, but something always seemed to interfere before I could contact you and arrange the date.

I am sorry that I will not be able to be with the brethren there before moving to Abilene, Texas, July 1. I have appreciated knowing you and ask you to accept my regrets at being unable to come.

Fraternally yours,

John Allen Chalk
