Dear Leo:

I have definitely scheduled our meeting with the Park View congregation to begin on Sunday morning, October 27, and continue through Friday evening, November 1, 1968. My only concern was the possible conflict with the Livonia meeting but your remarks concerning that have made it clear that we can proceed without any such fear.

Needless to say it will be a genuine pleasure to work with you. I look forward to a great effort.

Fraternally yours,

John Allen Chalk
