Mr. John T. Smithson, Jr.
702 Donaldson Avenue
San Antonio, Texas

Dear Brother Smithson:

I have read with delight of your coming to San Antonio to work with the Jefferson congregation. I have watched their work for some time and appreciate so much what they are doing. I believe that you will have a great work there in view of your own unusual experience and their apparent willingness to work.

I have been receiving their church bulletin for some time, and I will look forward to reading it with even greater interest in the days ahead. It is a pleasure to count you among my close personal friends, and I appreciate so much what you did in Lebanon.

I talked recently with Margaret Hutchinson regarding another prospect for the congregation, Bob Brooks, of Houston. The Hutchinsons indicated that they already missed you and your family a great deal. You had come to mean much to the Hutchinsons as well as to many others in Lebanon.

I send you my prayers and best wishes as you begin your new work.

Fraternally yours,

John Allen Chalk
