Mr. Jack Exum
Church of Christ
93 Castlereagh Street
Belfast 5, Ireland

Dear Jack:

Please excuse my tardiness in sending you the money for the thousand tracts mailed to you on March 7 by the Christian Publishing Company. The enclosed checks represent a total of $55 and the enclosed invoice is for $51.75. I am happy to have been able to make this very small contribution to the great work you are doing in Ireland. You have provided others of us an inspiration and an example of to what extent the great commission must grip our lives and control our actions.

Please give my regards to Brother Eckman and convey to him my gratitude for his kind letter. May the Lord continue to bless your labors.

Fraternally yours,

John Allen Chalk
