
John Allen Chalk: Personal Correspondence

John Allen Chalk

6-12-1966

To: George Sanders

John Allen Chalk

Follow this and additional works at: <https://scholarworks.harding.edu/hst-chalk-personal>

Recommended Citation

Chalk, J. A. (1966). To: George Sanders. Retrieved from <https://scholarworks.harding.edu/hst-chalk-personal/2744>

This Letter is brought to you for free and open access by the John Allen Chalk at Scholar Works at Harding. It has been accepted for inclusion in John Allen Chalk: Personal Correspondence by an authorized administrator of Scholar Works at Harding. For more information, please contact scholarworks@harding.edu.

June 12, 1966

Mr. George Sanders
Highland Street Church of Christ
443 South Highland
Memphis, Tennessee

Dear Brother Sanders:

I can well appreciate the problem you are facing there with the loss of Dale Castleman. Dale, I know, has done an excellent job for you, and I do hope you will find someone who can do the job as well as he has been able to do it.

I would suggest only one man for the position there, Sam McFarland, who presently is teaching at David Lipscomb College and pursuing a graduate degree in religion at Vanderbilt University. Sam's masters in Bible is from Abilene Christian College. He is a native of Lebanon, Tennessee, and is an excellent young man. If this does not prove to be a fruitful place to turn, my only suggestion is that you contact Brother J. D. Thomas at A.C.C. Accept my best regards in your pursuit of a man for this very valuable position.

Fraternally yours,

John Allen Chalk

JAC:mn