Mr. E. C. Maynard
Route 1, Box 102
Killen, Alabama

Dear Zeke:

It was a thrill to spend the day with Opal and family during our recent Midwestern Children's Home rally day. Opal is, of course, right in the middle of the great work being done for this home; and it now looks certain that the home will be a great success for the Ohio Valley area.

Your recent report has been received and deeply appreciated. It is obvious that you are doing a great work. I do wish that my schedule permitted me to be a part of such a great work. I would like nothing better and would consider no honor greater than to be a fellow laborer with you and yours.

Be assured of my continuing prayers and my willingness to help whenever possible.

Please note that my permanent address changes as of July 1 to either the Highland Church in Abilene, P.O. Box 2439, or 809 Byrd Drive.

Fraternally yours,

John Allen Chalk
