Cookeville, Tenn
June, 23, 1966

Mr. & Mrs. John A. Chalk;
Dear Bro. & Mrs. Chalk:

We would like for you to know how very, very much we regret your leaving Cookeville.

By your untiring efforts and inspiring messages you have reached so many people whom no one heretofore had been able to reach spiritually.

It has been through your wonderful leadership that the Broad Street Church has made the progress for God that it has.

You are held in the very highest esteem by the congregation the people of Cookeville and Putnam County, as a consecrated, devoted Christian.

Our prayers and best wishes go with you in your new field of work
Sincerely
Willis + Gladys Hensley
