Dear John:

The time has come to set the specific dates for our meeting with you in 1967. Ordinarily we have some latitude and can give a speaker two or three alternatives. This particular instance though, John, our spring program is very, very tight and we are going to have to ask you to do all you can to meet the one date which suits our schedule. We have George Stephenson coming later in the Spring for a meeting, and then, Norvel Young in the Fall. 1967 will be our 75th Anniversary year at Broadway and so we are going to put everything into these efforts.

We would like for you to hold the meeting Sunday, February 12, through Sunday, February 19. This is the week before the ACC lectures, and two weeks after the LCC lectures. So you see we have lots of things we must avoid. We would like for the entire meeting to deal with the topic of prayer. You can handle the subjects in any way you think best, but we felt you were a man of prayer and we want our members to have a meeting devoted entirely to this great subject. Let me know as soon as you can if these dates will be suitable.

Sincerely,

William S. Banowsky
