Dear John:

Caught your broadcast tonight on the "Commitment of Youth," and thought it quite good. I am more convinced all the time that we are failing in a great way to present the real challenge of Christianity to our young people and that we will soon pay for it. What they could do for the Job and Peace Corps, they could do for Christ. They have to be challenged though.

Called brother Haddox the middle of the week, and he said I had my work cut out for me. The film series on T.V. is going great. We are getting our little ball of yarn wrapped up around here. David Sherwood of Keene, N. H. is coming here. He ought to do some good, too.

We move Wednesday week, and should be in Abilene, on June 3 or 4---depending on how long we take in Dallas, etc. Best to you and all of yours from all of us. Must run for now, finals!

Yours in The Faith,

Mark
