542 North Washington Avenue
Cookeville, Tennessee

Dear John:

I am substituting for Sister Cothran at the telephone switchboard while she is on vacation. Judy Shoulders will be back tomorrow to help out.

We had good services yesterday, with two restored and a young woman and boy baptized. I placed membership, and someone asked me if you were going to place your membership here! I said I didn't know, of course. I tried to locate your house while driving around on the hill the other day, but haven't quite decided for sure just which one it is.

I am getting a "start" on your magazines (I'm on the second one!). I understand how you want it done, and should be able to spend more time on them now. I spent most of last week typing the dictabelts Brother Harper had left.

Your shelves are looking good in your office! I'm eager to get moved in. Hurry up and come (As if we could make July 5 come any more quickly!)

I'm enclosing a couple of pieces of mail.

Sincerely,

Lois
