Dear John Allen,

~~It was a pleasure to receive your letter stating that you can be with us for a meeting Sunday, October 27 through Friday, November 1, 1968. We will be looking forward to having you with us at that time.~~

Livonia is far enough away that your meeting there will not effect the meeting with Parkview at all. We, at Parkview, are thrilled that you can be here at that time. The dates are satisfactory with us. We would like for you to reserve them for the Parkview meeting.

Yours for the preaching of the gospel in every nation under heaven in our generation,

Leo
