Dear Mr. Chalk:

As you probably know, I received a telephone call from Mr. Tom Hudgins last evening and today have written him an application-letter, a copy of which I am enclosing for your information.

Of course, I have given this much thought and prayer, and feel that the association with you and other knowledgeable persons would greatly benefit me, and the opportunities for spiritual growth would be unsurpassed by any others attainable. I am sure you can appreciate the salary problem and if my request cannot be met, I would be happy to consider whatever offer can be made.

Having heard of you with wonderful comments in your presentation of the Gospel, it was a thrill to meet you personally. I sincerely hope I have the opportunity again. May God truly bless you with the strength needed in His work.

Sincerely,
