Dear John:

Thanks for the fine letter to the Arlington conferees and to the wonderful support you gave at the recent prayer meeting service. I hope my remarks were fitting for the occasion. Mark Hicks has promised to follow up on the registrations at Highland. You might continue to encourage him.

John, pray for the Dallas meeting and that God will deliver the registrations, if this meeting is His will. We really need to start hearing from the students.

I so deeply appreciate what you are doing for this project.

Yours in Christ,

Jim Bevis
