Mr. John Allen Chalk
Broad Street Church of Christ
Cookville, Tennessee

Dear John Allen,

The elders asked that I write you and see if you could possibly come for a fall meeting in 1967 (preferably October or November). It was our thought that since you would be full-time with the "Herald of Truth" that you would have more time for meetings. I personally hope that you can come next year, if not, please give us the soonest date.

It was good to be in Cookville for the young people's banquet. What about an autographed copy of your book?

Sincerely yours,

J. M. Mankin
