Dear John Allen:

It was really great to have you on our lectureship and in our home.

I want to commend you for your superb effort. I heard many fine comments and believe it fostered much good.

I am enclosing your check. It has been a slow process to get it to you. I know it won't make you rich at this rate, but hope it will be adequate.

Again, we really enjoyed it and hope that we can work together at some future date.

Fraternally,

Harold
