Dear John Allen:

Thank you very much for your letters of December 12 and December 14, 1966. Frankly, I don't know just what response we will get from the letters, but the correspondence so far has not necessarily been disappointing. The only real disappointment that I have received so far was the letter from Madison Church in Nashville where Brother Ira North is the preacher. They said that they could not help us. We are hoping that Fifth and Highland Church of Christ in Abilene will be able to provide four scholarships. Please use your influence there if possible. I understand through James Walter Nichols that they are considering the possibility at this time and may approve the proposal.

I note with interest your withdrawal from Mission. It seems that it may be wise at this time to postpone the publication of Mission for another year or so. It is difficult to judge what is best in many situations. We hope and pray for you the very greatest possible success for your endeavors in 1967. Please call on us if we can be of help in any way.

In His service,

George Gurganus
