AMERICAN AIRLINES

633 THIRD AVENUE • NEW YORK, NEW YORK 10017

June 3, 1966

Dear Mr. Chalk:

It was generous of you to write us about the stewardesses on your flight - Miss Wallace and Miss Arness.

While all of these young ladies are anxious to be of service, it is always good to know when an unusually fine job was done. I am sending your excellent compliment to them through their supervisor, and I know they would want me to thank you for it.

Please continue flying with us - we will always do our best to give you equally good service.

Sincerely yours,

F. J. Mullins
