Dear John Allen,

I appreciated the letter so very much, thankful to our Heavenly Father that I am back in school hitting on almost all my spark plugs most days. Knocked down this week with respiratory infection.

The sermons you sent will go to my soldier boys in Viet Nam & Bangkok and to my Mexican daughter in Seattle. They have all been posted to listen but I have found out that you don't get too far with 18 to 22 year olds. And find out less.

Enclosed you will find some clippings from this Mr. Shedd, I remember you mentioned him. Did you read his condensation in Reader's Digest?

I hope you will have the good fortune to know Dr. Treat & Mildred. They are special friends of mine and are among the few I know who in following in his steps give up all right to them ~~as~~ "Phillips" Matt 16:24 their lives have blessed my life for 35 years -

It is time for your sermon, I am praying for a Methodist friend in San Antonio who has become a regular listener
tonight

~~tonight~~
Excuse this messy letter but I am writing in bed -

Praying for you and your family -
Eva Howard
