

5-11-1966

From: Charles C. Davis

Charles C. Davis

Follow this and additional works at: <https://scholarworks.harding.edu/hst-chalk-personal>

Recommended Citation

Davis, C. C. (1966). From: Charles C. Davis. Retrieved from <https://scholarworks.harding.edu/hst-chalk-personal/2995>

This Letter is brought to you for free and open access by the John Allen Chalk at Scholar Works at Harding. It has been accepted for inclusion in John Allen Chalk: Personal Correspondence by an authorized administrator of Scholar Works at Harding. For more information, please contact scholarworks@harding.edu.

6301 Shelby Street
Indianapolis, Indiana
May 11, 1966

Mr. John Allen Chalk
542 North Washington Avenue
Cookeville, Tennessee

Dear Brother Chalk:

The initial advertising has already been sent to about all of the congregations in Indiana and to many in Illinois, Kentucky and Ohio, pertaining to the Youth Rally in Indianapolis on June 25-26. The word is out that you will be on the program, and we are all looking forward to hearing you.

We do not feel that the air taxi is too expensive when we consider the tremendous potential for doing good at this rally. After all we will be dealing with teenagers, and no doubt many of their lives will be influenced by this meeting. Many, many people in the area are looking forward to hearing you on that occasion.

May I suggest that you go ahead and make the arrangements with Mr. Hunter Mir to fly you to Indianapolis on June 25th. The expense is no problem as far as we are concerned. We would prefer that you do it this way. With your busy schedule it would be unfair to expect you to make the trip by automobile.

We are in real need of a picture and biography in order to complete the advertising and brochure. Would you send this information by return mail?

Very truly yours,

Charles C. Davis

CCD:bd