Mr. John A. Chalk, Minister
Broad Street Church of Christ
Cookeville, Tennessee

Dear Mr. Chalk:

May I express my sincere appreciation to you for again serving as Toastmaster at the banquet during our recent TEA Leadership Conference. You are always a most welcome addition to any group of professional educators. The entire group was most appreciative of you.

We are sorry to lose you as a Tennessee Citizen but as always "there couldn't be a Texas if Tennesseans hadn't helped", so I guess we'll have to help again and share you. But, do come our way again.

Many thanks for your help.

Sincerely yours,

Charlene Collier
