Dear John,

Just sitting here thinking about you and of the times that we were together in Dallas and other places. They are sweet memories.

John, we don't call on many congregations to do for us but we are in desperate need of a supply of tracts. We have a shop here that is open to the public and people come by frequently requesting tracts and we have completely given out of our supply. We now have a printing press and hope before long, within the next three months to begin printing, first on a limited scale and then perhaps on a exhilarated one. Our own tracts are now down to a bare minimum. We truly need a response from five congregations. I'm writing each congregation requesting that they send us no less that a thousand tracts immediately. We primarily need tracts upon 'understanding the church', with general theme of the church and the 'restoration movement', 'how to become a Christian' and tracts upon fundamentals are always good. I know they'd sell these tracts in all the bookstores, but we have been over our budget for the last two months, and truly would appreciate some help along this line. If you can respond to this immediately, we would truly appreciate it and it would be a big help to us.

We love you all and read of your continued success. We pray each day that God will make this year the greatest year for His kingdom upon upon this earth and may His richest blessings be upon you and upon your work.

Sincerely in Christ,

Brother Jack
