Dear Bro. Chalk,

No, I do not want a sermon outline, but if you have one laying around you can send it in your return letter. I appreciate the outlines you have given me in the past, but this time I want to ask a very special favor.

Around the first Sunday in August, we are going to have a Young People's Meeting here at Scottsboro. This was begun last year and was very successful in its first year. The idea is for a young person to speak each night. Several activities will be planned for the young people during the week. But the favor I want to ask of you is this: Would you be willing to come and kick off the meeting for us perhaps on the Sunday night? I have talked with the elders, and they told me to write you. I am not making any committment. They just want to know if you would be able to come, and for how much? I would appreciate an immediate reply.

I know you are a very busy man, but I would appreciate it very much if you would come. I will be looking for your reply. Thank you very much.

Sincerely,

Bill Thomas
