Mr. John Allen Chalk
P.O. Box 574
Cookville, Tennessee

Dear John Allen:

Every thought of you has been pleasant. God has endowed you with much and useful talent. You have shown good judgment in the proper use of it. May you stay humble so God can continue to use you. Maybe God would be pleased to use you on the mission field where 93% of mankind is living and where likely less than 1% of His son’s church is putting forth an earnest effort to reach the lost. Remember, dear boy, God will not hold us responsible for converting every creature but He will for each creature we neglect to teach to the extent of our ability. He has made it possible to give every man a chance through us. It is poor use of God-given time, talent and money spent on people who have had their chance while neglecting so many. We may rationalize and give God reasons for not scattering enough to evangelize the world too long and regret it.

Thank you for a $10 check just received; this entitles you to a Missionary Pictorial which is to come from the press in a few days.

In the late afternoon of Tuesday, June 14th, I plan to arrive in Cookville to contact some brethren in each congregation until some time Thursday for the Missionary Pictorial. Before making any arrangements, I will plan to contact you upon arrival. I will, of course, want to worship somewhere Wednesday night, at which time I would like some speaking opportunity in behalf of mission work.

I will be on my way to attend the Blue Ridge Bible Camp in North Carolina. Hope to contact brethren in Knoxville the 17, 18 and 19th. God bless you brother.

Yours in Christ
