Dear Mr. Chalk:

I acknowledge the receipt of your letter, dated October 17, 1966. I was really delighted to be informed that you had not forgotten me. It is always my pleasure to become acquainted with one whom delivers God's word; especially when they seem dedicated and enthused with their task. Your message, "Total Commitment" is still burning in my heart.

I express appreciation for the sermons you sent. I have read some of them. My son will be home from college in a few days, and I will put forth every effort to have him read the sermon, "The Insanity of Sin". The portrayal of the Prodigal Son is superb.

I converse with Mr. and Mrs. Hailey daily and it seems that most frequently your name is mentioned. Jim Swafford comes by to visit with me too. I frequently tell him how much I enjoyed the meeting and what a great help it was to me.

Mr. Chalk, I will continue to pray for your great work for the Lord, and do hope that we shall meet again.

Sincerely yours,

Alonzo L. Redmon Sr.
