Dear Vivian and Jimmie:

Fred Davis and I were deeply honored at your invitation to come and enjoy the hospitality of your home last week. Wonderful highlights of my week was the opportunity to speak at Torrance and to have lunch with you. As usual, Vivian's lunch was beautiful and delicious.

One of the highlights of my entire life was the opportunity to assist Jimmie in another great act in his obedient life. I understood and appreciated out of my own personal experience what you wanted to do, and was thrilled and humbled to be a part of this act of surrender to the lordship of Jesus and the indwelling spirit. God bless you both as your great ministry through action continues to stir thousands of people.

Your colaborer,

John Allen Chalk
