

February 2019

Correspondence between Chalk & James L. Lovell

James L. Lovell

Follow this and additional works at: <https://scholarworks.harding.edu/hst-chalk-personal>

---

Recommended Citation

Lovell, J. L. (2019). Correspondence between Chalk & James L. Lovell. Retrieved from <https://scholarworks.harding.edu/hst-chalk-personal/3074>

This Letter is brought to you for free and open access by the John Allen Chalk at Scholar Works at Harding. It has been accepted for inclusion in John Allen Chalk: Personal Correspondence by an authorized administrator of Scholar Works at Harding. For more information, please contact scholarworks@harding.edu.

From the desk of

JAMES L. LOVELL

Dear John Allen:

Here is a funny one that came in an open envelope. I started not to send it but you might like to see what it takes to make a world.

Many have written me about my remarks in last two issues. Clyde Hale, Claude Gardner are the only ones who took real exceptions and they had that right. I have written them kind letters as they are big Christians. I also wrote Brother Goodpasture. I have had many letters but many more telephone calls - as far away as New York - backing me. This is good but far from my objective. We must keep the great brotherhood papers alive and THAT is my objective.

Jimmy had 42 baptisms in his meeting here even if the setting was very difficult.

A card from Fred Davis today saying to go ahead and set up a meeting for you at Torrance (and lunch at my house) on the Wednesday you are here but he did not tell me the date. You send it to me so we can make ready a great day of it.

It is a great day my son. Pray hard for wisdom but let no stoning, shipwreck, beatings, criticisms, etc., pull you back from the mission for which you were born. God has never farsaken any child even in a crucifiction.

I love my blessed boys.

