The attached copy of a letter I have just received from Norvel young explains what he needs. Would you please be able to either get some materials together or more directly dictate a statement that would relate Christian Homes to Highland church in such a way that other congregations could be encouraged to be more involved with benevolent programs of various kinds? Could you also dictate something regarding our benevolent efforts at the church? If you need any help with this you might could get it from Lula. Anything you could send, like one or more pages, I am sure would be appreciated both by me and by the Youngs.

Dear John Allen:

We are planning an issue of the 20th Century Christian on benevolence. We would especially like to include some of the plans being implemented by the Highland church.

Would you describe, in a brief paragraph, either congregational benevolent specifics or individual or special group benevolences? Work with the poor, widows, orphans, handicapped, and elderly should be mentioned.

The church is growing in interest in the needy, but we hope this issue, including the work of Christians in your area, will stimulate us to do even more.

Cordially yours,

M. Norvel Young
