Dear Tom:

I am glad the books got to you in good condition. Thanks for sending the check. It will allow me to make the same books available to somebody else on the same basis. I hope that you are able to profit in your Bible study and in your continued personal preparation by the reading of the books.

Your decision to preach is a beautiful decision that I pray God will bless you in. The burdens and responsibilities are tremendous in these days of great need but God promises the kind of power and strength that great burdens require (Ephesians 3:14-21; Philippians 4:19). I know that during the next few months especially, and throughout the rest of your life, you will respond to God in answer to this responsibility and receive from Him the power to fulfill this great challenge.

Your brother,

John Allen Chalk
