O
Dear Dean Gibson:

P
Yesterday while in Austin to testify before the State Affairs Committee, I had one of the Senate Aids hand deliver my Acceptance of Admission to the June, 1971 class. This letter is confirmation of my acceptance in case the message yesterday was misplaced.

I plan to enter the Law School as scheduled May 31, 1971.
This is my confirming notice of that intention.

I will comply with the other necessary requirements for admission to the June, '71 class, in the immediate future.

Sincerely yours,

John A'len Chalk
