Dear brother:

I want to thank you so much for insisting that I keep my commitment in Greenville. The few days there were a real blessing to me. The times we got to spend together, and the conversations we shared meant much to my life. Thanks for the leadership you have given to the congregation all these years, and continue to give so freely.

I have mailed the two books you ordered, and I hope you enjoy them. I will keep in mind our future possibilities, in view of our conversation. May God continue to bless all of you in special ways.

Your brother,

John Allen Chalk
