Dear Sheryl and George:

I thoroughly enjoyed being with both of you again in our recent retreat. Your contributions to the group sessions made the weekend much more stimulating for everybody. I am thankful that you were not only there, but felt free to contribute even at points of difference with the things I was saying. Thanks for providing this kind of honest confrontation. I think it is always good and helpful.

George, I don't remember whether you got a copy of Three American-Revolutions or not during that weekend. If you didn't get a copy, please let me know and I will send you one from here.

I pray that God will continue to richly bless both of you and that you will continue to find the meaningful ways to serve that I know are coming to you every day.

Your brother,

John Allen Chalk
