Dear Dr. Hingson:

I thrilled at the challenges you presented to those of us who attended the Yokefellow Conference recently. Thank God for the devotion to your brothers around the world that characterizes your life and the lives of those who work with you.

I am genuinely interested in being a part of one of your future volunteer teams. My wife and I would like any information, if such exists, on how we might become a part of such an effort on future dates. Any information you could give about how we might qualify, or whether there is even the possibility, would be deeply appreciated.

May God continue to bless you, your colleagues and the alleviation of suffering that The Brother's Brother Foundation is accomplishing.

Sincerely yours,

John Allen Chalk
