Dear Mike:

What a beautiful spirit of honesty and forthrightness your recent article shows. Thank God for men who are willing to be as honest and open as you are willing to be.

My only concern now is that neither Brother Rice nor Brother Cavender turn on you and proceed to spend a lot of your time and theirs in attacking the things you say about me. Please do not feel it necessary that you have to defend me and please do not allow yourself to be drawn into a useless battle with men like this who can only do harm.

There is no way to tell you what your article meant. You are one brother who has taken the time and the concern and has shown the love that makes being brothers in Christ a beautiful experience.

Fraternally yours,

John Allen Chalk
