Dear Joan:

I learned from relatives of yours of your recent visit to Abilene and wish so much I could have gotten to meet you. My acquaintance with you, both through your work with the radio and TV Commission and through Randy Rogers, has made me want to know you and to be associated with you.

Under separate cover I have been audacious enough to send you a copy of my recent book, Jesus' Church. Possibly in all of your busy schedule you may be able to get a little time to glance at it. It is simply an expression of my genuine respect for you and for your special faith.

I look forward to a time when we can meet each other and become more personally acquainted.

Sincerely yours,

John Allen Chalk
