

---

John Allen Chalk: Personal Correspondence

John Allen Chalk

---

1-14-1971

To: Grady & Nell Jolly

John Allen Chalk

Follow this and additional works at: <https://scholarworks.harding.edu/hst-chalk-personal>

---

Recommended Citation

Chalk, J. A. (1971). To: Grady & Nell Jolly. Retrieved from <https://scholarworks.harding.edu/hst-chalk-personal/3155>

This Letter is brought to you for free and open access by the John Allen Chalk at Scholar Works at Harding. It has been accepted for inclusion in John Allen Chalk: Personal Correspondence by an authorized administrator of Scholar Works at Harding. For more information, please contact scholarworks@harding.edu.

Memo to: Grady and Nell Jolly

From: John Allen Chalk

Date: January 14, 1971

C
O
P
Y

The attached materials tell something of a work that I have recently learned about, "Institute in Basic Youth Conflicts," a ministry designed to equip parents and youth leaders to effectively work with young people, as well as to more Biblically balance their own lives. Those who know the director of this program, Mr. Bill Gothard, say that it is one of the most effective ministries presently directed toward young people.

I don't see any way that we could make arrangements to attend the Dallas Seminar that will last all week but I did want you to know about this institute and the Seminar it conducts all over the country. It would be beautiful if we could get Bob Bailey to provide his plane and several of us who work directly with young people here at Highland could attend this Institute each night. Look the materials over, pray about it, and see if there is any way that some of us could plan to take advantage of this training session. From all I have heard from other people about it, and from what I read in these materials, it sounds like the kind of thing that could help us a great deal.

After reading the materials, pass them on to Gary Mabry, along with this memo. Gary, would you then return these materials to me. They are the only information I have about this particular effort.