Mr. Frank Goff
First National Bank
Lexington, Tennessee

Dear Frank:

My mother and father told me of your mother's recent death. I deeply regretted to hear this bad news and wanted you to know of my personal sympathy and concern.

My parents hold you in special respect and appreciate you as a man first and also as a very capable banker. I want to thank you for the many times you have assisted my father in various ways over the past several years.

I offer you my deepest concern at the passing of your mother. Your entire family has been a blessing to many, many people through the years. It is rare that people of the caliber of your family are to be found giving of themselves so ~~so~~ sacrificially to others.

Sincerely,

John Allen Chalk
