Dear Brethren:

I am writing to recommend your serious consideration of Dr. John McRay, presently connected with David Lipscomb's College of Bible. I have known John for more than ten years and believe him to be a very serious, committed Christian and a student of God's Word.

I know of no man in our fellowship who more beautifully combines technical scholarship with pulpit preaching than does Brother McRay. I have studied with him in small group retreats, as well as listened to him preach to large groups. I have also watched his life and the life of his family. They are Christians whom you can respect and with whom you can work.

If there is any possibility of your giving serious consideration to Brother McRay to fill your pulpit, I hope you will do so.

Fraternally yours,

John Allen Chalk
