

---

John Allen Chalk: Personal Correspondence

John Allen Chalk

---

4-8-1971

To: Dick Pridgen

John Allen Chalk

Follow this and additional works at: <https://scholarworks.harding.edu/hst-chalk-personal>

---

Recommended Citation

Chalk, J. A. (1971). To: Dick Pridgen. Retrieved from <https://scholarworks.harding.edu/hst-chalk-personal/3171>

This Letter is brought to you for free and open access by the John Allen Chalk at Scholar Works at Harding. It has been accepted for inclusion in John Allen Chalk: Personal Correspondence by an authorized administrator of Scholar Works at Harding. For more information, please contact scholarworks@harding.edu.

April 8, 1971

Mr. Dick Pridgen
125 Sawyer Drive
Salem, Virginia 24153

Dear Dick:

I will be available for the June 11 and 12 Retreat. I am not sure at this point how early I can get into Tri-City on Friday afternoon, but I will be able to stay all day Saturday and over into Sunday if necessary.

Begin making your plans now. If you have to change the date, feel free to do so. I will probably be able to work with it.

No way to tell you and Doty what being with you meant to me this weekend. I sense so much spiritual growth and new power in both of your lives. Praise God for the way you are opening yourselves to Him in an ever deeper way. The prayer session with you, George and Bob was a highlight of the weekend. I am still awaiting the final word that God opened the doors that we prayed for Him to open for Charles Holt.

I love both of you deeply and pray even this very moment God's richest blessings on you.

Your brother,

John Allen Chalk

JAC:lc

C
O
P
Y