Dear Chuck:

A dear friend of mine, Jerry Campbell, is coming home this summer after ten years in Brazil. Jerry and Barbara have been close to Sue and me for more than fifteen years. He is a deeply sensitive and deeply spiritual man who could provide the congregation at Park Street great leadership. They are returning from Brazil solely because of the brain dysfunction in their youngest child.

Jerry Campbell is looking for a place to preach now and would preferably like to be near a city like Nashville where they could take the child for therapy. If you desire, and are interested, he could be contacted Caiza Postal 30.008, Sao Paulo 1, Brazil. Or you might also write him in care of the Peak and East Side Church of Christ, 4301 East Side Avenue, Dallas, Texas, 75226. This congregation has overseen Jerry’s work all these years in Brazil and the elders there could give you their personal evaluation of him.

Fraternally yours,

John Allen Chalk
