Dear Bill:

Thank you for a very beautiful evening last week. I thoroughly enjoyed the time with you, your wife and all your students. I hope that the evening was spiritually stimulating and upbuilding to your students. I appreciated their response and thought it reflected a lot of maturity and showed a tremendous amount of work on your part.

I made it back to Abilene by two-thirty. Thanks again for inviting me. I thoroughly enjoyed the time with you and pray God's very richest blessings on your work there.

Your brother,

John Allen Chalk
