Dear brother Goodpasture:

Sue and I appreciated your Christmas greeting. We are grateful that God has given you continued health and strength for your work with Gospel Advocate.

Our trip to Tennessee at the holidays was brief and hurried. Unfortunately, we were in Nashville only a short time and did not get an opportunity to visit with you. We send you our warmest regards for a meaningful new year.

Enclosed is my first effort for the Advocate in 1971. I hope that it meets with your editorial needs and can be used profitably in a future issue.

Fraternally yours,

John Allen Chalk
