Dear John,

I just read about Nixon's State of the Union address - "Two Americas, Revolution" - we'd better battle... they're gaining on us!

Seriously, you may know that I'm being asked to return in a few months to take over TV. My characterization may be enough alone to prompt you to work without taking the risk of being it. What are your thoughts about the situation here? Discouraging or encouraging? Why is everybody (Fry, W. Mason, Zecher, Scott) leaving? Will you also go away? Is that as good a time as now for me to think about returning? (We you still interested in doing something with T.J. Remondet (Linda & Peggie's dad) - they were very nice to me some 6 years ago.)
