JOHN GLENN

Dear Mr. Chalk,

I am the young man who talked to you about my roller coaster-like life. I have been following your advice of each day verbally saying "Today Christ is my strength". This has not only helped me with my regular problems, but it has given me the courage to take on more difficult tasks.

Something I wanted to mention to you at La Mesa was when you were talking about being self conscious you threw in a question about the very thing I had in my hand. The question was, "Who has their CERTS?" In my hand I was holding a half-used pack of CERTS.

I also want to say that your talks were by far the most interesting that I have ever heard in a long time. I can't tell you how much those two talks have helped me personally. I also like your sense of humor.

I hope to be able to attend other youth rallies where you will be speaking.

May the Lord bless you in your great work for him.

Sincerely,

Bruce West
